Ditchrider

A nightly archive of Western water-rights filings, turned into a ranked feed of what changed.

Out here, water rights move land deals. New appropriations, changes of use, transfers, abandonment. States publish all of it, but each in its own format, and almost none of them keep history. If you didn't grab a snapshot yesterday, yesterday is gone.

HOW IT RUNS

HIGHLIGHTS

- Nightly snapshots of water-rights filings in Utah, Idaho, Colorado and Montana.
- A history no state publishes, stored by content hash so the archive stays small.
- 1,044 rankable filings in the first 30 days, against a kill line of 200.
